Miller & Rhoads

Mail Orders Filled at Advertised Prices

Right Kind of School Hose for Children

121c For Heavy Cotton Stockings that in many respects are better than you can get anywhere else for 19c &

Three-thread leg, two-thread foot, heavy double knee; seam-less; sizes 6 to 10. Correctly sized in leg & foot, 121/c.

Children's Mercerized Hose, in black & tan, double sole, all sizes. Very superior hosiery both in quality & style for....  $25^{\rm c}_{\rm pr}$ .

"Pony Brand" Fine Lisle Thread Stockings - famous Wayne knit

Double knee, full fashioned foot, double heel & toe.
Uncomparable value at .. 25c

Facts and False Pretense in Obtaining Loans.

MACHINIST HURT

Story Refers to Some

Other Person.

for The Times-Dispatch on Saturday. That night a telegram was sent by this newspaper to its Lexington correspondent, asking him to question the patient and to see whether or not his name was really Justis. Several hours later a dispatch almost identical with that published in an afternoon newspaper yesterday was received, but it was not printed, as Haddon S. Watkins. Mr. Justis's brother-in-law, stated over the telephone about midnight that information from Dr. Porter satisfied him that it was not Mr. Justis. Mr. Watkins said last night that he was absolutely certain that Mr. Justis was not the man who shot himself.

SUITAGAINSTC.&O. |PLANTERS'BANK WITH ODD POINTS SUES S. E. DUGGINS

Claim for Damages Alleged to Be Alleges Misrepresentation Due to Breaking of Sawmill in Transmission.

terday in the City Circuit Court Equity Court yesterday by the Plant-against the Chesapeake and Ohio Rail- ers' National Bank against Samuel E. of $9,000, claimed to be caused by the breaking of a sawmill in transmission. The actual damage to the machinery is placed at $400, but the plaintiff claims that by reason of the regigence of the railway company he was prevented from sawing and shipping a quantity of valuable lumber which he had a contract to deliver by a specified time, and that by reason of this he was put to a large loss, estimated at $13,075.

The sawmill and accessory machinery was delivered to the railway company in Richmond on July 2, 1908, to be shipped to Providence Forge, on the Peninsula division, a short distance seast of Richmond.

Duggins, for $9,703, the charge being made in the declaration that Duggins misrepresented facts to the bank and the bank and that burgins obtained fears on the bank alleges that on June 28, 1906, and from time to time since, until January 6, 1908, Duggins, for $9,703, the charge being made in the declaration that Duggins misrepresented facts to the bank and that burgins obtained false pretenses. Ournset for the bank alleges that on June 28, 1906, and from time to time since, until January 6, 1908, Duggins, for $9,703, the charge being made in the declaration that Duggins misrepresented facts to the bank and that burgins details to the bank and will light the case.

Ounsel for the bank alleges that on June 28, 1906, and from time to time since, until January 6, 1908, Duggins, for $9,703, the charge of the bank and that burgins details to the bank and will light the case.

Ounsel for the bank alleges that on June 28, 1906, and from time to time since, until January 6, 1908, Duggins, for $100 beans and the Newport News convention tried so hard to nominate, and who see successfully dedged the lightning. Mr. Gillespie is the prominent Southwest lawyer whom the Republicans at the Newport News convention tried so hard to nominate, and who see successfully dedged the lightning. Mr. Gillespie is day examining some ancient records in the Henrico County Courthouse. John M. Rateliffe, of Buchanan. Mr. Rateliffe as a mated at $13,075.

Smashed in Transit.

The sawmill and accessory machinery was delivered to the railway company in Richmond on July 9, 1998, to be shipped to Providence Forge, on the Peninsula division, a short distance to be shipped to Providence Forge, on the Peninsula division, a short distance cast of Richmond.

Mr. Gaede claims that the machinery was broken in transit, and delayed, by reason of which he was prevented from cutting and sawing timber he had contracted to cut and deliver before October 1, 1908, and which he did no right to cut after that date. A formidable bill of costs is attached to the declaration, in which the actual damage to the sawmill machinery, including boiler, engines and other parts is piaced at $400, amourt paid hands while waiting for same, $455, damages by preventing Gaede from sawing certain specified amounts of certain grades of timber into lumber and cording to the declaration Duggins was regarded and represented himself; to be a profitable and desirable customer of the bank, when on February 15, 1908, he was adjuged a bankrupt by the was dayloged a bankrupt by the was adjuged a bankrupt by the was adju pened Pending Kidd's Condition.

Application for ball was considered yesterday morning by Gilbert K. Pollock, attorney for Thomas Price, Everett Bohannon and Coleman Chappeil, who are being held on suspicion of having committed the murderous assault on J. D. Kidd Friday night, but no effort was made on account of the precarious condition of young Kidd, and the prisoners were remanded to jail pending his recovery or death. The hearing will come up on September 23.

Adophus Eminous the Police Court yester-the charge in the Police Court yester-day morning of being implicated in the theft of a wagonload of iron from ine Old Dominion Iron and Nail Works, but Morris Crown, John Burch and imple Dinn were found guilty and ntenced to the Reformatory. Mary Bear, alias Mary Johnson (col-

W. L. Toney (white) was sent on to the grand jury on a charge of breaking into the saloon of D. J. O'Neal and stealing therefrom a quart of whiskey.

william Meekins (solored), Kezia Davis (colored) and Thomas Collins (white) were each sentenced to sixty days in jail, fined $100 and placed under $500 bond for twelve months on charge bond for twelve months on charge of selling liquor without R. G. Bennett (white) was fined $5 Relatives Declare That Lexington

W. Y. Canada, against whom eleven warrants, charging the theft of vari-ous sums of money, had been swor-out was dismissed on payment of

WOMAN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE BECAUSE HUSBAND'S AWAY

Scalped His Buggy.

While driving by the corner at Ninth and Clay Streets yesterday, C. E. Tucker had the top of his buggy taken off by a wire hanging across the street, and was himself struck in the face. He was not, however, badly hurt. The wire was placed across the street by men hanging a cable.

It's a Good Trade

to leave off coffee

"There's a Reason."

Chairman Ellyson Arranging Dates for Campaign Speeches by Executive,

WILL COVER WIDE GROUND SENT BY THE GOVERNMENT EVERYBODY IS SATISFIED

Gillespie Still Declines to Be Drawn Into State Politics.

One of the most important features of this year's campaign will be the speeches of Governor Swanson. Chair-man Ellyson will make a series of ap-pointments for the Governor, and expointments for the overlaw, and the pects the best of results for the party and its nominees. As head of the State government for the past four years, the executive is thoroughly familiar with every detail of administration, and is in position to give the voters and is in position to give the voters acts instead of surmises.

The Governor is an exceedingly active campaigner, preferring to make we speeches a day when possible. In his way he covers a great deal of this way he covers a great agree number of voters without consuming much time. He is now at work upon his speech, and will soon be ready for service on the stump.

Gillespie Not in Politics. bert Gaede instituted suit yesay in the City Circuit Court nst the Chesapeake and Ohio RailCompany for damages in the sum $3,000, claimed to be caused by

Suit was instituted in the Law and Equity Court yesterday by the Plantbert Gaede instituted in the Law and Suit was instituted in the L on the strength of these statements fessional business.

Senator Martin Leaves.

Senator Thomas S. Martin, who came to Richmond Sunday, spent yesterday to greeting his friends and in calling upon his political associates. He saw cancelled his engagement to speak in Bristol next Saturday night. That city has had a constant siege of political turmoil for many months, and it was thought inadvisable to have a political meeting at this juncture.

Will Hold Convention.

Candidates for the House of Delegates will be nominated by the Democrates of Bristol and Washington county in a convention to be held at Abingdon on September 27. The convention has just been called by agreement between City Chairman H. G. Peters and County Chairman W. J. Snedgrass The Bristol Democrats will select delegates at a mass-meeting to be held September 21, while on September 25 magisterial district mass-meetings will be held throughout Washington county to choose delegates.

S. L. Millard, of Bristol, a Republication of the present House from to choose delegates.

S. L. Millard, of Bristol, a Republican member of the present House from this district, is a candidate for re-election. A warm fight will be waged, for the district is very closely divided between the parties.

A. R. Hudgins Struck by Piece of Iron at Locomotive Works.

A. R. Hudgins, of 113 East Marshall Street, a machinist at the American Locomotive Works, was struck by a flying piece of iron yesterday morning. He was bruised about the head and shoulders, and internal injuries are feared. He was treated by Dr. Cosby, of the city ambulance, who took him home.

Dr. Cosby was also called to attend a negro named William Lee, who had two teeth knocked out and his jawbone broken in a fight with another negro. Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were issued yeserday by Clerk Christian, of the Hustings Court, to Ernest Clifford Pollard and Kate Jones Jordan, and to Elmslie G. Higginbotham and Lavinia

SHOOT HIMSELF

You've Seen Many Just Like Him and You'll See a Good Many More.

Relatives of William M. Justis said last night that there was absolutely no reason for believing that the man who shot himself in Lexington, Ky., on Friday was the Richmond lawyer, who has been missing from his home College gates open next week to the

Because she had not heard from her husband, who had been absent from home two weeks, Mrs. Irvin Thomas, of Boudar Station, on the Richmond, Tredericksburg and Potomac Ratiroac, pittempted to commit suicide at reflower by the left breast.

The report of the pistol aroused nambers of her family, who ran at conce to her room, where she was found lying in a pool of blood. Apphysician was summoned immediately. She was said to be dangerously but the total family from Wisconsin. The come here from Wisconsin. The come here from Wisconsin. The come here from Wisconsin. The swoulded woman has no children. She will probably recover.

Scalped His Buggy.

The fact that this message had been sent was learned by a reporter for Plant this inght a telegram was sent by this newspaper to its Lexington cortains him to question the left has a his head with its downturned brim, his trousers turned up a foo and a half above his low-quarters, in and the property of the province of the piston and province of th secret delight bids home farewell, and hies him back to the seat of learning.

There he is welcomed noisily by his friends; is patted on the back by the professor - who - wants - to-be-popular, and is salaamed to by the college tail and is salaamed to by the college tailor, who gives him credit all winter and trouble all summer.

The number of initiation and laboratory fees he will ask for in about a month will startle you. If the fond father is not careful, the son will join Dr. Scherer Recovering.

The Rev. J. J. Scherer, D. D., the college, Bible class at least once a month, and call for contributions from father "for settlement work" or "for charlies," With shrewd ambiguity, he called the month of the independent Order of charlies." With shrewd ambiguity, he will on Sunday afternoog write a pactically ill for the past week at the William Byrd Hospital, is much improved, and it is now believed that he will recover. Dr. Scherer is one of the most prominent citizens of the southwestern section of the State.

GOV. SWANSON TO FIGUREHEAD LIKE WHITLOCK MATTER WHITE ELEPHANT DROPPED BY BOARD I

No Formal Complaint About Fire,

but Department Defends

Chemical Work,

Captain and Chief Explained

What Happened at South Jefferson Street Blaze.

After an informal inquiry into the merits of the case, the Board of Fire

Defend Work of Chemical

"THE BLOODY FIFTH"

amous Confederate Regiment's Survivors to Meet in October.

During Fair week, in October, there vill be a reunion of the survivors of

SCHOOLS TO OPEN

Massive Pieces From Battleship Virginia Sent to Adjutant-General Anderson.

Virginia May Have Had More Troops in Revolutionary War Than Massachusetts.

eral Charles J. Anderson is freely admitted by that official. Through his Commissioners decided last night that mitted by that official. Through his cefforts the State of Virginia is the proud possessor of several thousand pounds of metal which he has no idea what to do with, and which cannot with propriety be thrown away. Some time ago General Anderson saw a statement in a newspaper to the effect that the United States Navy.

the effect that the United States Navy Department was removing the figure formal complaint; that he had met him enthe suggestion was made in the article that each State could probably secure the piece from the ship bearing its name.

name.

Fired with patriotism, General Anderson wrote at once to the Navy Department asking for the figurehead from the prow of the battleship Virginia.

It came yesterday. Two enormous have been less damaged and there been greater expedition. Capitain Taylor said that although no charges had been made in a formal sense, he had thought it proper to bring the matter to the attention of the board, and had summoned the capitains and lieutenants.

tative in the navy, and to decide upon its fate. He was not prepared for what he saw, and soon beat a retreat without reaching any decision whatever. If the Virginia has any use for it she can doubtless get it back,

AFTER WAR RECORDS

thearing Mcliwaine Will Show Facts

Librarian, will necessarily be slow of eccomplishment, but is being gradually worked out, partly as the result of tories.

Those who desire to join the Daughters or the Sons of the Revolution frequently ask the Librarian for the Revolutionary history of an ancestor. The military records of that period are, in the library, but constitute an immense mass of material, which has not been indexed. Other information bearing on the subject, however, has been indexed and by degrees is beimmense mass of material, which has not been indexed. Other information bearing on the subject, however, has been indexed, and by degrees is being brought into the condition from which some day the accurate rolls of the soldiers which the State gave to the war for freedom will be made up. It is the belief of Dr. McIlwaine that he will be able in the future to demonstrate that Massachusetts did not furnish so many more Revolutionary soldiers than Virginia, as the New England State has so constantly claimed.

the war for freedom will be made up. It is the belief of Dr. McIlwaine that he will be able in the future to demonstrate that Massachusetts did not furnish so many more Revolutionary soldiers than Virginia, as the New England State has so constantly claimed.

Librarian McIlwaine charges a fee of 11 for searching for information regarding Revolutionary matters. If the information is found a further fee of information is found a further fee of $20 is charged. In this manner about $40 a month is earned and turned into the State Treasury. Dr. McIlwaine was absent on September 1, and did not make his regular monthly report, but yesterday turned over to Auditor Marye the sum of $59.75, rept.

Auditor Marye the sum of $59.75, representing the receipts since August 1.

Rendy for Debt Case.

Attorney-General Anderson is devoting a large part of his time in yearartion of his brief in the Virseas and the property of the street of the property of the street of the property of the street of the property of the fire.

Mr. Whitlock repeated that he had no complaint to make, and after some discussion the board passed the whole matter by without action, Mr. Whitlock declining to present of the fire.

Mr. Whitlock repeated that he had no complaint to make, and after some discussion the board passed the whole matter by without action, Mr. Whitlock repeated that he had no complaint to make, and after some discussion the board passed the whole matter by without action, Mr. Whitlock repeated that he had no complaint to make, and after some discussion the board passed the whole matter by without action, Mr. Whitlock repeated that he had no complaint to make, and after some discussion the board passed the whole matter by without action, Mr. Whitlock repeated that he had no complaint to make, and after some discussion the board passed the whole matter by without action, Mr. Whitlock repeated that he had no complaint to make, and after some discussion the board passed the whole matter by without action, Mr. Whitlock repeated that he had no complaint to make, and after some discussion the board passed the whole matter by without action, Mr. Whitlock repeated that he had no complaint to make, and after some discussion the board passed the whole matter by without action, Mr. Whitlock decilining to present without action, Mr. Whitlock repeated that he had no complaint to make, and after some discussion the board passed the whole matter by without action, and the property action to the first the property of the first th Rendy for Debt Case.

Attorney-General Anderson is devoting a large part of his time in preparation of his brief in the Virginia-West Virginia State debt case, which is set for argument beginning September 21. Major Anderson does not feel at all sure that the hearing will be gone into at the time set, since delays have frequently occurred in this case, but he will be ready in any event.

event.

The case is to be heard by Special Master Charles E. Littlefield, at his ffice in New York.

will be a reunion of the survivors of the famous Fifth Virginia Cavatry, "the Bloody Fifth," as it had been known. The first reunion of the sur-vivors was held in Richmond last Oc-tober, which was largely attended. Captain P. J. White was made presi-dent, and S. C. Shelld, secretary and Mr. Eggleston Returns.
Superintendent of Public Instruction J. D. Eggleston, Jr., returned to his office in the Capitol yesterday, after spending a vacation on his farm in Prince Edward county. his treasurer. with a view of making the organization more permanent, Secretary Shelld issued yesterday a call for contributions from old members. The contributions are to be voluntary, from such of the survivors as can afford to contribute, and every survivor of the regiment is invited to attend the reunion and banquet to be held one night while the State Fair is in progress.

Delegate Evans Here.

Hon, W. D. Evans, who represents the counties of Middlesox and Mathews in the House of Delegates, was a caller at the Capitol yesterday.

Distribution of Traveling Libraries.
The division of traveling libraries of the State Library has supplied the following points in Virginia with traveling libraries during the past two weeks: Montvale, Bedford county; Christiansburg, Montgomery county; Ellendale, Smyth county; Body Camp, Bedford county; Moss Neck, Caroline county; Petersburg Women's Club, Greenwood, Albemarle county; Wakefield High School, Sussex county, and Appalachia High School, Wise county. FIRST BATTALION TO HAVE FOOTBALL TEAM THIS YEAR Much interest on the subject of foot Much interest on the subject of football has been aroused among the members of the First Battalion, First Virginia Regiment, and it is probable that a creditable football squad will be developed in the battalion. Sergennt G. C. Kelly is at work looking up the available material, and it is expected that within a few days the men will be at practice and preparing to give other teams in Richmond and vicinity some warm contests,

163

"Talk With Crafts."

Full particulars on Page 5.

Incoming and Outgoing Students

will find HERE everything necessary in wearing apparel in all the correct styles for fall and winter.

Suits, Raincoats, Hats and Furnishing Goods, in generous varieties.

Gans-Rady Company

CITIZENS DEMAND BABY SHOW WILL BETTER SERVICE BRING OUT STARS

Highland Park Association Will Grand Championship Prize Goes Ask Commission to Order Improved Schedule, is alleged to be greatly inadequate, the at the Virginia State Fair next month. Highland Park Citizens' Association Entry blanks have been printed and Bahike to appoint a committee to con- numbers. Ever since the announce-

It came yesterday. Two enormous masses of metal, securely crated, were nauled to the State Library Building and, with the assistance of a swarm of nusky "hands," were rolled, pushed, slid and hauled into the office of the Adjutant-General, which has been lately vacated pending the completion of the Library annex.

Just what the design is remains unknown. Part of it looks like an eague and packed, for it occupies most of the unipacked, for it occupies most of the said he did not desire to press charges. He said he did not know of his own packed, for it occupies most of the said he did not know of his own folia on, and is padded like the Norfolk City Directory. It is presumed by those who have secured a glimpse that it was placed on the battleship to frighten the enemy away without the necessity of using guns.

General Anderson proceeded to the Company to put on more cars and run to show that the first notice of the fire ame in a telephone message to head-quarters when a still alarm was runs, and the records showed that just three minutes later the captain of the first company to arrive on the scene had pulled the box, ringing the alarm for assistance.

Assistant Chief Wise, who directed the firemen, told of the arrangement of the chemical lines, one from the back and one from the front. Both worked taken. and one from the front. Both worked properly, he said, with no delay at any point. There was no water used, he said, making the condition of the plug

Captain F. C. Ramkey, of Engine Company 5, the first to arrive on the scene, said that he took the chemical line through the front door, which he had found open; that it worked all right, and that Mr. Whitlock was not present when he arrived.

Assistant Chief Wise said he was prepared to prove that Mr. Whitlock had not been away from the house as much as twenty minutes. This was decided to be unnecessary, however, as Captain Taylor said all the board wanted was to find whether the mend made mankings had done rooms wark.

rine Co. No. 2.

The resignation of T. P. Abrams, fireman, grade "C," in Truck Co. No. 1, was received and accepted.

W. C. Angle, substitute in Engine Co. No. 4, was promoted to fireman, Grade "C," in Truck Co. No. 1, vice Abrams.

The board ordered the secretary to purchase 2,000 feet 3-inch and 500 feet purchase 2,000 feet 3-inch and 500 feet Tome Grain Graft Inquiry.

2M-inch double-jacket fire hose from the Boston Woven Hose and Rubber for the Board of Aldermen to-night.

the Boston Woven Hose and Rudos.
Company.
The chief made a special report concerning the annual convention of fire chiefs, which he recently attended 'n Grand Rapids, Mich.

has been remedied.

Going After Dog Tax.
Constable Garnett, equipped with a new horse and buggy, and other incidentals conducive to making people loosen up county funds, is starting out this morning to collect dog taxes in Tuckahoe District. The decree has gone forth from Judge Scott and the Treasurer that these taxes must be collected, or many a good coon and possum dog, along with a multitude of worthless ones, will go to the Happy Huntings Grounds, where they don't collect toll.

to Winner Over All

Arrangements have been completed company to improve the service, which for the haby show which will be held are now being distributed in great ment made some time ago that the ex-hibition was contemplated Manager ment made some time-ago that the exhibition was contemplated Manager Mark R. Lloyd has been besieged by deting mothers, some of them carrying their entries in their arms, eager to find out the conditions of the show to the most minute detail. Because of these demands it was decided that the show must take place.

show must take place.
The contest will be held in the grand-

The contest will be held in the grandstand Saturday morning, October 9, at 10 o'clock, the last day of the fair. Entries close at midnight September 27. There will be a fee of 50 cents charged for entry in each class.

How They'll Be Judged.

The judging, which will be done by several well selected bachelors, will be according to the following sections, each to count an equal number of points: (a) Appearance, (b) health, (c) disposition, (d) precocity, (e) weight, tion to the commission to force the company to put on more cars and run a better-schedule.

The chairman of the School Committee stated that at the next meeting of the association he would make a full report on the institution, on which great improvements have been made lately. It will be opened September 27, and will have a kindergarten and a normal training department. The playgrounds proposition was discussed, but no definite action was taken.

FIREMEN AT FAIR

Board Orders Protection for Buildings and Exhibits During Fair Week.

At the request of General Manager Lloyd, the Board of Fire Commissioners last night instructed Chief Joynes to detail a fire company with chemical apparatus at the State Fair.

The following substitutes were appointed on probation: J. N. Ashworth, to Engine Co. No. 1; W. B. Wright, to Engine Co. No. 1; W. B. Wright, to Engine Co. No. 1; F. B. Hall and D. G. Allen, to Engine Co. No. 1; F. B. Hall and D. G. Allen, to Engine Co. No. 1; F. B. Hall and D. G. Allen, to Engine Co. No. 1; T. F. Montelro and S. C. MeGregor, to Truck Co. No. 1.

James N. Fagan, having served his probationary term as a substitute, was appointed a regular substitute, was appointed are gaular substitute in Engine Co. No. 2.

The resignation of T. P. Abrams, fireman, grade "C." in Truck Co. No. 1, vice of the fair.

W. C. Angle, substitute in Engine Co. No. 4, was promoted to fireman, Grade "C." in Truck Co. No. 1, vice of the fair.

ALDERMEN TO-NIGHT

the Boston Woven Hose and Rubber Company.

The chief made a special report control chiefs, which he recently attended in the chiefs, which he recently attended in Grand Rapids, Mich.

GANS-RADY WALL NOT TO BE TORN DOWN NOW After a more thorough examination in specior Beck has found that there is no danger of any collapse of the West wall of the Gans-Rady building, and he will not require it to be torn down. When the building next door was removed to make room for enlarge, ing the American National Bank the Gans-Rady wall was exposed, but any trouble that might have been feared has been remedied.

Going After Dog Tax.

Constable Garnett, equipped with a new horse and buggy, and other incidentals conductive to making people loosen up county funds, is starting out this morning to collect dog taxes in Tuckahoe District. The decree has gone forth from Judge Scott and the Treasurer that these taxes must be collected, or many a good coon and possum dog, along with a tot the Hanny and the Council in a bad light.

Court Term Opens.

ollected, or many a good coon and possum dog, along with a multitude of worthess ones, wil go to the Happy Huntings Grounds, where they don't collect toll.

Meeting Postponed.

On account of the Councilmanic baseball game yesterday afternoon and the possible condition of some of the players after that hardy struggle, the meeting of the Committee on Consolidation of Richmond and Manchester, called for last night, was postponed. Chairman Pollard will call a meeting shortly.

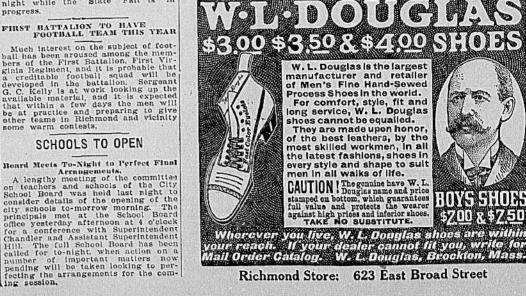

The September term opens.

Court Term Opens.

The September term of the Law and Equity Court opened yesterday morning at 11 o'clock in the presence of a large gathering of the bar of the city. One of the largest dockets ever presented to the court was called, and a meeting of the Committee on Consolidation of cases set for trial. The term gives promise of being one of the busiest on record.

Judge Ingram entered judgment in the case of Michael Kelly against James Bowden for $304.

$ZOO R $7250

Wherever you live, W. L. Douglas shees are within your reach. If your dealer cannot fit you, write for Mail Order Catalog. W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass. Richmond Store: 623 East Broad Street